

The Hamworthy Combustion Institute Industrial Training Content

GLOBAL SOLUTIONS. . . LOCAL DELIVERY

Course:	In Depth Burner Training
Duration:	2 Days
Location:	The Hamworthy Combustion Institute, Poole, Dorset, UK.
Who should attend:	Supervisors, Plant Operators, Maintenance Engineers and those responsible for burners and plant
Content:	Burner machine components, functions and overall burner assessment <ul style="list-style-type: none">- condition- faults- rectification- detailed metering block- oil passages- control valves resetting and servicing- Detailed combustion exhaust analysis Fault finding, rectification and what / how to adjust
Objective:	The course is aimed at providing the delegate with an in depth knowledge of how to safely operate and maintain a typical burner.
Training Methods:	The courses are carried out with a mixture of theoretical and practical studies combined with open discussion. This allows for valuable information to be shared and discussed amongst the group, every course is concluded with a written assessment and each delegate is provided with a certificate.
Cost:	£495 per person For additional training venues, please contact The Hamworthy Combustion Institute
Includes:	Tutorial support, training documentation (manuals, reference books), course certification, buffet lunch and refreshments throughout the day.
Dates:	29th – 30th September 2010
Times:	This course starts at 09.00 am and completes at 16.30 daily All documentation and lectures will be presented in the English Language

